Overview

Eleanor has a broad practice in commercial litigation and arbitration. She has been instructed on a range of high profile trials in the High Court, and has acted as sole counsel in numerous arbitrations and High Court claims, as well as in proceedings before the Upper Tribunal, and the Regulatory Decisions Committee of the Financial Conduct Authority. Eleanor's core practice areas include civil fraud, energy and financial regulation, in addition to contract disputes in a broad range of contexts. Eleanor has been ranked as a leading Junior in International Arbitration by the legal 500 since 2013.

Eleanor's practice comprises all aspects of commercial litigation both in England, and offshore. She has acted in proceedings before the Royal Court of Guernsey, the High Court of Justice of the Isle of Man, and the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court, BVI.

Eleanor has acted as sole advocate before numerous arbitral tribunals constituted (variously) under ICC, LCIA and ad hoc UNCITRAL rules and (with leader) of SIAC. Eleanor is ranked as a Leading Junior in International Arbitration in the Legal 500, 2024.

Eleanor has been called to the bar of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court, BVI.

Examples of Recent Cases

Arbitration

Eleanor Campbell has wide experience in both domestic and international disputes, governed under a variety of rules, including (but not limited to) the ICC, LCIA, SIAC and UNCITRAL. Eleanor has also experience of Arbitration Claims before the Commercial Court.

- Arbitration Claim in the Commercial Court

Acted with Michael Fealy KC for the respondents to an injunction granted pursuant to s.44 of the Arbitration Act 1996, in the context of a dispute between the members of an LLP.

- ICC Proceedings

Acting for the additional party in ICC arbitration proceedings in which the claimant seeks interpleader relief, and where the substantive dispute in relation to the payment of commission is between the Respondent and the Additional Party.

- ICC Proceedings

Acted with Alex Gunning KC, and a team of other barristers, on a heavy arbitration relating to a joint venture for the construction of infrastructure where the claim was valued at in excess of US$2.5 billion. The substantive hearing took place over six weeks in summer 2021.

- Eleanor has also acted (with Ben Strong KC) for the Financial Conduct Authority in three sets of three sets of disciplinary proceedings against individual traders alleged to have participated in LIBOR manipulation (including Hussein v FCA [2018] Lloyd's Rep F.C. 574). She has also acted for the FCA in separate proceedings in the Upper Tribunal.

Civil Fraud

Eleanor has had involvement in some of the most notable fraud litigation in recent years.

- Emmerson International Corporation & Ors v. Mikhail Abyzov & Ors
Acting (with Vernon Flynn KC) on behalf of a number of defendants purportedly joined to and served with claims in this very heavy litigation. The underlying dispute relates to an alleged joint venture between Mikhail Abyzov and Viktor Vekselberg, in relation to power generation assets in Russia. Mr Abyzov's primary claim is for c.$900 million.
- Public Institution for Social Security v Al Rajaa & ors
Acted with Camilla Bingham KC for the defendant bank in proceedings brought by a state pension scheme to recover alleged secret commissions paid to its agent, and which were estimated to exceed US$847.7 million in total.
- Fonds Rusano Capital SA v. CRGF GP Limited
Acted, with Steven Elliott KC, for CRGF in relation to Fonds Rusnano's attempts to wind up a limited partnership and rescind a partnership agreement. Fonds Rusnano alleges that it was misled by the owner of CRGF, its former employee, such that it was unaware that CRGF would be entitled to be paid very significant management fees under the management agreement. There are parallel proceedings in Guernsey in relation to winding up a Guernsey trust. Fonds Rusnano has also issued a claim in fraud against its former employee in London.
- Sir Owen Glenn v Eric Watson [2018] EWHC 2016 (Ch)
Acted (with John McCaughran KC and Hannah Brown KC) for the Defendant in a £129 million dispute between two prominent New Zealand businessmen arising out of proposed investments in ground rents and other forms of investment in UK property. The proceedings culminated in a three month trial in the Chancery Division in summer 2017.

- Ipsos S.A. v Aegis Group PLC
Acted (with Kenneth MacLean KC and Michael Fealy KC) for the Defendant in various sets of proceedings arising out of the purchase of a market research business. The claimant claimed damages in excess of £100 million, for fraud and breach of warranty. The proceedings settled shortly before trial.
- Ticket2Final OU v Wigan Athletic AFC [2015] EWHC 61b (Ch)

- ICC Proceedings

Acted for the Claimant foreign contractors in a dispute with the state-owned oil company of a North-African country, in relation to the calculation of their share of oil under a production sharing contract. Issues include the proper construction of provisions for the apportionment of profit oil, the proper classification of costs incurred in de-commissioning the field, and the application of certain fiscal provisions in light of changes to Algerian tax law.

- ICC Proceedings

Acted for the Claimant in proceedings for damages for wrongful termination of a consultancy agreement in relation to the negotiation and performance of an exploration and production sharing agreement, concluded with a regional government in Iraq.

- Ad Hoc UNICITRAL Proceedings

Acted for the Claimant Greek fuel and power company (as sole counsel), in a dispute over the construction of a force majeure clause in a coal supply agreement, (culminating in a 5-day hearing).

- Vitol E&P Limited v African Oil and Gas Corporation

Acted for the Claimant on a claim for sums due under a share purchase agreement in relation to a company which held an interest in a production sharing agreement for the exploitation of hydrocarbons offshore the Republic of Congo. The amount of consideration due was determined by reference to the progress of development work under the production sharing contract.

- ICC Proceedings

Acted (with Daniel Toledano KC) advising the Claimant on a potential claim in relation to alleged breaches of royalty agreements in relation to the exploitation of hydrocarbons in partnership with an African state oil company.

Agency

- Public Institution for Social Security v Al Rajaan & ors

Acted with Camilla Bingham KC for the defendant bank in proceedings brought by a state pension scheme to recover alleged secret commissions paid to its agent, and which were estimated to exceed US$847.7 million.

- Sir Owen Glenn v Eric Watson

Acted (with John McCaughran KC and Hannah Brown KC) for the Defendant in a £129 million dispute between two prominent New Zealand businessmen arising out of proposed investments in ground rents and other forms of investment in UK property. The issues in the case include whether a company director acted in breach of his fiduciary duties and/or for an improper purpose and whether he therefore lacked authority to execute the disputed contracts. The proceedings culminated in a three month trial in the Chancery Division in summer 2017.

- Acted for a luxury car manufacturer in a dispute with the agent it engaged to negotiate contracts with third parties for the licence of rights to exploit the manufacturer's brand. The claim concerned questions of the proper construction of the contract between principal and agent, attribution of knowledge, and breach of authority/fiduciary duty.

- ICC Proceedings and Commercial Court Proceedings

Acted for a Hong Kong based purchaser of steel (as sole counsel), in a commodities dispute (culminating in a 3-day hearing) against the Turkish manufacturer, for damages suffered as a consequence of failure to supply. Followed by Commercial Court proceedings (with Neil Kitchener KC) resisting claims under s.67 and 69 of the Arbitration Act 1996 (challenging the arbitrator's ruling as to his jurisdiction, and permission to appeal on points of law): Habas Sinai Ve Tibbi Gazlar Istihsal Endustrisi v VSC Steel Co Ltd [2014] 1 Lloyd's Rep 479.

The key issue on the substantive claim was whether the defendant's agent had had authority to execute the contract in terms providing for London arbitration on its behalf and if not, whether the claimant knew it lacked such authority. The case also raised questions of the law applicable to determine the question of whether an agent has authority to agree the law applicable to the subject contract.

Injunctions and Other Interim Relief

Eleanor has experience of acting for both the applicants for, respondents to, and third parties affected by, worldwide freezing injunctions. She also has experience of obtaining injunctions in the Companies Court, to restrain the presentation of winding up petitions, and of other interim orders such as orders for Norwich Pharmacal relief.
