Overview

James is presently on a period of leave from Chambers, and is working as a member of the Litigation & Insolvency team at Harneys in the British Virgin Islands.

When practising at the Commercial Bar in London, James has a broad commercial litigation and arbitration practice encompassing a wide range of disputes, frequently, but not exclusively, with an international element. James is comfortable acting both led and unled.

James was until recently engaged in Suppipat & Ors v Nop Narongdej & Ors - US$2bn cross-border fraud proceedings in the Commercial Court (listed as one of The Lawyer's Top 20 cases for 2022). He has also recently acted for a commercial core participant in the Grenfell Tower Inquiry.

James' practice has also encompassed commercial disputes arising in the context of the international arbitration sector. He acted as part of an extensive legal team in ad hoc (PCA administered) arbitration proceedings claiming significant damages as a result of failure to deliver under a gas supply agreement. He acted in English-seated ad hoc arbitration proceedings for a government department which sought a range of relief including payment in excess of £50m. He also acted on behalf of an investor in ICSID proceedings. In ZCCM Investments Holdings plc v. Kansanshi Holding plc & Anr [2019] EWHC 1285 (Comm), James appeared in a s68 arbitration claim before the Commercial Court, arising out of UNCITRAL proceedings; and he appeared (as sole counsel) in LCIA proceedings concerned with payments under a loan agreement and a guarantee resulting in an award well in excess of US$20m.

James has experience in obtaining urgent injunctive relief, appearing in SDI Retail Services Limited v. Rangers Football Ltd & Ors [2018] EWHC 1697 (Comm).

Notable prior engagements have included Dar Al Arkan & Anr v Al Refai & Ors (alleged fraud / breach ME banking practice), listed as one of The Lawyer's Top 20 cases for 2014 and 2015: Global Disputes in the English Courts and Chesterfield United Inc & Anr v Deutsche Bank AG & Ors (€500m sale of credit-linked notes).

James considers pro bono work is an important aspect of a Barrister's practice. He is a CLIPS Pro Bono Champion 2021 and 2022 for his work in respect of the Chancery Bar Association's litigant in person scheme.

Examples of Recent Cases

Arbitration

In recent years, James' practice has encompassed commercial disputes arising in the context of the international arbitration sector. He acts as part of an extensive legal team in ad hoc (PCA administered) arbitration proceedings claiming significant damages as a result of failure to deliver under a gas supply agreement. He has also acted in English-seated ad hoc arbitration proceedings for a government department which sought a range of relief including payment in excess of £50m. Separately, James has acted in a s68 arbitration claim before the Commercial Court, arising out of UNCITRAL proceedings and (as sole counsel) in LCIA proceedings concerned with payments under a loan agreement and a guarantee resulting in an award well in excess of US$20m.

In October 2018, James presented a joint paper (with Michael Sullivan QC) on the measures available to deal with recalcitrant parties in international arbitration (including under the ICSID and UNCITRAL Rules) at the 8th Investment Treaty Arbitration Conference in Prague. An updated and amended version of this talk is available here.
