Overview

Lord Grabiner is a commercial lawyer with a substantial court, arbitration and advisory practice. For over 40 years he has been involved in many of the highest profile commercial disputes that have been fought in London. Specialising in banking & finance, energy/oil and gas, civil fraud, competition and merger investigations and shareholder disputes, Lord Grabiner is highly experienced both as an advocate in the High Court and as arbitration counsel.

He has also been admitted to the Bars of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court (BVI) and the Cayman Islands, and he has appeared before the Hong Kong Court of Final Appeal. He has extensive experience appearing as counsel in international arbitration disputes, and also sits as an arbitrator in ICC, LCIA and DIFC disputes.

Recent work has included in Microsoft v. CMA (2024), intervening in the Competition Appeal Tribunal on an application for review of the CMA's decision to block Microsoft's acquisition of Activision Blizzard in a deal worth US$68.7 billion; Nam Tai Property Inc v Greater Sail Ltd [BVIHCMAP 2022/0009] in the Supreme Court of the Eastern Caribbean (BVI); and in Nord Anglia Inc. in the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands in a 3-week trial dealing with a dispute as to 'fair value' under sec. 238. He also appeared in the UK Supreme Court (2019) for Halliburton in relation to an explosion and fire on an oil rig in the Gulf of Mexico, the "Deepwater Horizon" oil spill. The appeal arises from related arbitration proceedings dealing with insurance claims and more specifically, when should an arbitrator make disclosure of circumstances which may give rise to justifiable doubts as to his impartiality. He has also been acting in relation to a substantial investment dispute in Xie ZHikun & Ors. v. XiO GP Limited & Ors., both court and arbitration proceedings.

Examples of Recent Cases

Arbitration

Halliburton Co v Chubb Bermuda Insurance Ltd [2018] I W.L.R. 3361

For the Claimant in its appeal to the Supreme Court in late 2019 in relation to apparent bias in international commercial arbitration.

Rochester Resources Ltd & Ors v. Lebedev & Anr [2014] EWHC 2926 (Comm) - Two individuals and a company were refused an anti-suit injunction to prevent a businessman pursuing a claim in New York against them where they had not established to a high degree of probability that he was bound by a UK arbitration clause. He was not a "party" within the meaning of the relevant agreement, which concerned the sale of his beneficial interest in an oil company.

Petrochemical Industries Co (KSC) v. Dow Chemical Co [2012] 2 Lloyd's Rep 691 - An application to remit a partial arbitral award for reconsideration was refused where a party had failed to establish that there had been a serious irregularity under the Arbitration Act 1996 s.68(2)(d). The tribunal had in fact dealt with an issue that had been put to it, albeit succinctly in a single sentence.

Advising in relation to challenges to arbitral awards and more specifically issues under sections 67 & 68 of the Arbitration Act 1996

Acting for a water company in relation to a dispute concerning charges, connected to the provision of water services to and from government offices.

Acting for a major investment bank in relation to a dispute concerning the termination of leases for vessels.

Advising in relation to a complex share transaction which formed the basis for an arbitration dispute.

Advising a pharmaceutical client in relation to arbitration proceedings concerned with a dispute in relating to a collaboration agreement.

Acting for a telecommunications client in an arbitration dealing with a substantial shareholders dispute.

Numerous advices generally in relation to arbitration proceedings, English law and the enforceability of awards in a variety of jurisdictions. Those advices include work in the banking, energy, oil and gas, telecoms and construction industries.

Nominated as Arbitrator in various LCIA, ICC and adhoc arbitrations.

Arbitration (As Arbitrator)

- Sitting in a three panel appointed arbitration in 3 related DIFC/LCIA cases dealing with the operation and management of a large hotel in Dubai

Banking and Financial Services

"He brought experience, gravitas and clear advice to a very complex case. We value his insight and strategic arguments." "He is a superb advocate. He knows what will work and what won't with judges and different tribunals. He has a good feel for outcomes." Chambers UK 2022 - Banking and Finance

"Lord Grabiner remains one of the most eminent counsel at the Bar. He has great personal force and presence in court and commands considerable respect from the Bench. Behind the scenes he gives clear, clever and practical advice and provides invaluable insight into tactical issues. He has a great ability to know which arguments will appeal to the court." Chambers UK 2018 - Banking and Finance

A doyen of the Commercial Bar with several decades of experience of appearing in the leading cases of the day, including a significant number in the House of Lords and the Supreme Court. "His sense of lie of the land is incredible. He is so approachable, open and unbelievably intuitive." "A huge name at the Bar. He is very user-friendly, has a great manner with clients and has real gravitas and precision."

"Lord Grabiner remains one of the most eminent counsel at the Bar. He has great personal force and presence in court and commands considerable respect from the Bench. He gives clear, clever and practical advice, has invaluable insight into tactical issues as well as a great ability to know what arguments will appeal to the court and what points can and cannot successfully be run" Chambers & Partners 2016.

Imbued with "simply outstanding judgement," he "has such overwhelming gravitas that he wins the client's confidence immediately." Allied to this, his "incredibly courteous demeanour has judges eating out of his hand." Chambers & Partners 2009

- Terra Firma v Citibank (2015/16)

Lord Grabiner is instructed by Terra Firma, in relation to the private equity fund's multi-billion pound claim against Citi arising out of the takeover of EMI. The case is listed for a 7-week trial in Spring 2016

- Bank of England - Appointed by the Oversight Committee of the Bank of England to lead its investigation into the role of Bank officials in relation to conduct issues in the foreign exchange market. The investigation, supported by Travers Smith LLP, focuses on matters relevant to the FCA's investigation into trading on the foreign exchange market, and specifically whether any Bank official, during the period July 2005 to December 2013:
 - (a) was either (i) involved in attempted or actual manipulation of the foreign exchange market (including the WMR FX benchmark), or (ii) aware of attempted or actual manipulation of the foreign exchange market, or (iii) aware of the potential for such manipulation or (iv) colluded with market participants in relation to any such manipulation or aware of any such collusion between participants;
 - (b) was either (i) involved in the sharing of confidential client information or (ii) aware of the sharing of such information between participants for the purposes of transacting business in the foreign exchange market; or
