Overview

Described as ‘tenacious’, ‘approachable’ and providing ‘first-class legal analysis’, Michael Fealy is a leading silk who practises across the broad range of commercial law, litigation and international commercial arbitration. Michael is regularly recommended by the UK’s leading legal directories for both his legal expertise, his clarity of communication and his courtroom skills.

His approach combines comprehensive technical expertise with a fearlessness in court. He has a calm and clear communication style and is praised for his ability to cut through complexity. He has considerable experience of leading and managing complex, long-running cases, demonstrating willingness to work closely as part of a team with clients and solicitors to achieve successful outcomes. By way of example, from 2018 to 2022 he led a team of barristers representing SKAT, the Danish tax authority, in its long-running £1.5bn fraud claim.

His client base includes listed companies, owner-managed enterprises, energy businesses and government agencies, based in the UK and overseas. Michael has experience in numerous international commercial arbitrations governed by a variety of rules, and in expert determinations.

Called to the Bar in 1997, he became a KC in 2014. He is also a member of the Irish Bar (1995).

Examples of Recent Cases

Arbitration

Recommended by Legal 500, Michael Fealy is a "strong advocate", singled out for his "excellent advice". He has substantial experience in international commercial arbitration dealing with a range of disputes and governed by a variety of rules. He also has experience of expert determination in the electricity industry and rail industry, and in acting in LNG gas price reviews for both purchaser and seller.

Michael Fealy has a "real strength of conviction, which he supports with wonderfully considered legal argument". (Legal 500)

His recent work includes:

- ICC Proceedings
Acting for Middle Eastern company in shareholder dispute with Indian former partners.
- Ad hoc Canadian arbitration
Acted as expert in English law in shareholders' dispute concerning an Asian mining company.
- Rail Industry Dispute Rules
Acted for regional transport authority in dispute with train operating company concerning payments to be made to the train operator under long-term franchise of suburban railway network.
- ICC Proceedings
Acting for major energy company in a dispute concerning the price to be paid for LNG under long-term contract.
- ICC Proceedings
Acted for a Thai electricity generating company in dispute with trading house under a long-term contract for the supply of coal. Damages of some US$400m claimed.
- Singapore International Arbitration Centre Proceedings
Acting for Hong Kong-based commodity house in dispute concerning alleged breach of contract for the sale of coal.
- LCIA Proceedings
For purchasers and sellers in price reviews for LNG sale contracts. Michael has acted as sole counsel in a number of matters in this specialist area.
- LCIA Proceedings
Acted for Texas-based oil field services provider in a claim for costs incurred in a wrongful death claim in Texas; the case included mediation in New York.
- LCIA Proceedings
For the claimant against a rig owner in a dispute arising out of a drilling campaign. The claim involved applications for security in many jurisdictions and Michael has advised leading US counsel on the interface between those applications and London arbitration.
- Ad hoc Arbitration under Bahamian Law
Acted for lender hedge fund in a claim to enforce a loan agreement secured over shares. The claim raised issues about the enforceability of security given over uncertificated securities.

Commercial Litigation

Recommended by both Chambers UK (Commercial Dispute Resolution and Energy & Natural Resources) and the Legal 500 (Energy and International Arbitration), Michael Fealy has a busy and diverse commercial practice dealing with all the major issues of the day in commercial law. This includes (but is not limited to) disputes arising out of share sale and purchase agreements, cases involving issues of a technical nature, environmental issues, trademark licensing disputes, warranty disputes and issues concerning agency agreements.

"A commanding advocate who has real presence in court." "Michael is extremely diligent and approachable, and he applies first-class legal analysis to a case." (Chambers UK 2020 - Commercial Dispute Resolution)

- Re Greensill Bank
Acting for insolvency administrator in resisting anti-suit injunction.
- Skatteforvaltningen (known as SKAT) v Solo Capital Partners LLP
From 2018 to 2022 Michael led a team of barristers representing SKAT, the Danish tax authority, in its £1.5bn fraud claim. The case is extremely complex and long-running, and Michael's role involved coordination across jurisdictions and managing a significant team of lawyers.
- Apache v Shell, Esso and BP
Represented the three energy companies in a dispute about the amount of money that Apache had to pay a security for the costs of decommissioning a North Sea oilfield. This is one of the first reported cases dealing with the impact of the end of the working life of these oilfields.

For BTR, in the trial of a preliminary issue where the claimant was precluded by its failure to give notice in the specified form from bringing a claim in respect of the defendant's alleged breach of the antitrust warranty in a share sale agreement.

Civil Fraud and Investigations

Michael Fealy has substantial expertise in this sector. He advises and acts for claimants and defendants in fraud and asset tracing claims and also has wide experience of freezing orders. He has particular experience in dividend-withholding tax fraud. He is currently contributing author for: Smith & Monkcom's "Law of Betting, Gambling & Lotteries", dealing with issues arising in the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002.

- SKAT v Solo Capital Partners (2018 - 2022)
Acting for Danish tax office in multi-jurisdictional £1.5 billion dividend cum-ex fraud claim. Obtained freezing order in that sum. Numerous interlocutory hearings and applications. Acted in trial and appeal on Revenue Rule, establishing that claim could be brought in England.
- Ipsos v Aegis [2015] EWHC 117 (Comm) EWHC 1726 (Comm)
Acted for the defendants in a £200 million claim for damages for fraud and breach of warranty following a share purchase. Michael has appeared in applications striking out large parts of the claim.

Energy and Natural Resources

Michael's expertise in this sector covers litigation, arbitration and expert determination/adjudications, together with a substantial advisory practice, and he is regularly instructed by major international energy companies as well as international and domestic owners and operators in the oil and gas sector. His instructions include a broad range of disputes, including under joint operating agreements, unitisation agreements, decommissioning security agreements, oil and gas sale contracts, and drilling disputes.

"A standout lawyer – incisive with a great courtroom manner." (Legal 500 - Energy)

Acted for Texas-based oil field services provider in a claim for costs incurred in a wrongful death claim in Texas; the case included mediation in New York.

Jurisdiction and Conflict of Laws

Michael has advised and acted in a number of jurisdiction challenges. He has considerable experience of dealing with issues of foreign law and the enforcement of foreign judgments. He acted for SKAT in establishing that its claims arising from cum-ex fraud were not claims to enforce a foreign revenue law claim.

- In Re Greensill Bank AG
Acting for the administrator in complex jurisdictional dispute.
- Re UK regional airport
Acted for regional airport in opposing enforcement of arbitration award made against sovereign state shareholder.
- Italian electricity supplier v Chinese insurance company

- SKAT v Solo Capital Partners
Acted for the Danish tax office in multi-jurisdictional £1.5 billion dividend cum-ex fraud claim. Case had complex issues as to whether it was the enforcement of a foreign revenue claim. Acted in trial and appeal on this issue.

Injunctive Relief

Michael has acted in many injunction applications and is accustomed to accepting instructions at short notice and working under the pressure of an imminent hearing. He is currently acting for Greensill Bank AG in opposing anti-suit injunction made ex parte.

In 2018 he obtained a freezing order for £1.5 billion in SKAT v Solo Capital Partners against multiple defendants in many jurisdictions. He also acted in numerous interim applications arising as a consequence.

In 2017, he obtained an anti-suit injunction to prevent litigation in Pakistan in circumstances where parties had agreed to a non-exclusive jurisdiction clause in favour of the English courts.
