

Niranjan Venkatesan KC

Barrister

Call 2015 Silk 2025

Scope of Practice

• Arbitration • Banking and Financial Services • Civil Fraud • Commercial Litigation • Company and Insolvency • Energy and Natural Resources • Injunctions (including freezing order and search orders) • Jurisdiction and Conflict of Laws • Professional Liability • Restitution

Overview

Niranjan was appointed King's Counsel in 2025 after only nine years in practice. Before taking silk, he was one of the leading juniors at the Commercial Bar, ranked in Band 1 by C&P and named C&P Commercial Litigation Junior of the Year 2024 and Legal 500 Junior of the Year 2023. Even as a junior, he was regularly instructed as lead or sole advocate, often against silks, in complex commercial litigation and in international arbitration. He also has extensive appellate experience, having appeared seven times in the Supreme Court and on many occasions in the Court of Appeal in cases involving complex and important questions of law. He is often brought into appeals and is known for his ability to find solutions in difficult cases. His recent advocacy in the Court of Appeal can be viewed here.

Before coming to the Bar, Niranjan read and taught law at Oxford, where he was a Vinerian, Eldon and Rhodes Scholar. He has a particular interest in civil fraud and related areas (including claims under section 423 of the Insolvency Act 1986, in which he has particular expertise). He is also called to the Indian Bar and able to advise on matters of Indian (commercial) law.
