Overview

Niranjan was named Chambers & Partners Commercial Litigation Junior of the Year 2024 and Legal 500 Junior of the Year 2023. He is regularly instructed as lead or sole advocate, often against silks, in complex commercial litigation and in international arbitration. He also has extensive appellate experience, having appeared seven times in the Supreme Court and on many occasions in the Court of Appeal in cases involving complex and important questions of law.

Before coming to the Bar, Niranjan read and taught law at Oxford, where he was a Vinerian, Eldon and Rhodes Scholar.

He has a particular interest in the conflict of laws and in misrepresentation, civil fraud and the law of damages, which were the subject of his doctoral thesis at Oxford. He is also called to the Indian Bar and able to advise on matters of Indian (commercial) law.

Recent cases include:

Invest Bank v El-Husseini: Acting (as sole counsel) for the defendants in a complex c.£20 million claim in the Commercial Court under section 423 of the Insolvency Act 1986, which has already given rise to numerous interlocutory judgments
